endearing manner. These questions are pretty general for gardeners and I could relate to many. One person did have a question about a Japanese Maple that was not doing well and I was surprised because my JM is not doing well - I thought it was because of the long cold winter we had and that it had suffered from the amount of snow. Guess, I will know by the fall.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five StarsBy CatI miss seeing Ciscoe on TV since NWCN shut down.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. This is simply an excellent gardener's resourceBy ChelanThis is simply an excellent gardener's resource. I bought this as a gift for my son-in-law, who is just getting into vegetable gardening.

Ciscoe Morris answers 400 the most interesting, oft-asked, most urgent, and puzzling gardening questions. Even if Ciscoe's signature exclamation "Ooh-la-la!" (delivered with a thick Wisconsin accent) is completely disarming, do not underestimate his gardening chops: Master Gardener, certified arborist, teacher at the University of Washington's Center for Urban Horticulture. In his first book, he addresses the full range of issues from ornamental gardening and trees to vegetables, fruit trees, shrubs, lawns, containers, weeds, and more.
