A 'sneak peak' inside beautiful, intriguing, eclectic homes of some wonderfully talented international designers (fashion). Spans quite a variety of design perspectives.3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. If you lover interior design this book is a must to haveBy James A. WarfieldYou get to look into talented peoples homes and see how they live. The book has all types of interiors to look at and enjoy.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. The title says it all.By Joseph A. WarfieldAn excellent review of memorable decoration.

Some of the most important people in fashionChanel, Alaa, Yves Saint Laurent, Pucci, Kenzo, and Missoniare known for their public image and their iconic designs. But what kind of world have they cultivated behind closed doors? From France to Italy, from England to Morocco, come along on a private visit to the remarkable homes of couturiers, stylists, muses, and fashion personalities. Photographer Ivan Terestchenko shows the decor, works of art, and the personal collections of these legendary designers. Some interiors, such as Chanel's apartment at 31 rue Cambon, are mythic, while others like those of Giorgio Armani's chlet or Vanessa Seward, Azzaro's head designer, are completely unconventional. From minimal (Nicole Farhi) to exotic (Franca Sozanni), to a deceptively simple French apartment (Loulou de La Falaise), this book explores the spaces and places created by some of fashion's biggest names. Praise for "Beyond Chic" "Photographer Ivan Terestchenko traveled the globe--from Ottavio Missoni's Venetian Manse to Christian Louboutin's adobe home in Luxor, Egypt--to capture the more than 200 images in this lush and inspiring bit of voyeurism." -- Details

"Lovers of fashion and decor can experience a rare glimpse of both in this well done compilation."
